

Disclaimer & Privacy Policy – Hydrorock International B.V.

General

You have reached the website of Hydrorock International B.V., s'Gravelandse weg 246, 3125 BS Schiedam, The Netherlands.

User Agreement

This website is governed by a use agreement between Hydrorock and the website visitor (hereinafter: 'you', 'the user'). By accessing and using this website, documents and other information contained in this website, you explicitly agree to the following provisions. You are deemed to have given your consent on first use and on each subsequent use. If you do not agree to this agreement or to any provision of it, you must immediately leave this website.

User Agreement – website information

All information, texts (such as specifications, manuals, user guides and product descriptions), photos, drawings, trade names, domain names, trademarks, logos, products and/or services (hereinafter: 'the information') offered or used through this website are owned by Hydrorock, its suppliers or by third parties and are, inter alia, protected by copyright and trademark laws. You may only use the information or parts thereof, in particular but not exclusively the documents included on this website, as an information tool without any direct or indirect commercial purpose. You may not copy, change, distribute, disseminate or otherwise use and/or exploit the material made available without the prior written consent of Hydrorock. Any unauthorised use of the information or a part thereof, and any use contrary to these provisions, is expressly prohibited and may result in civil law and criminal law penalties.

Linking and framing

Links to this website are allowed only in as far as it has been made clear to the user that he or she is using the website of Hydrorock or is directed by the link to the website of Hydrorock. Deep linking (a direct link to a document or page within this website) and framing (including information of this website or parts thereof on another website) are strictly prohibited without the prior written consent of Hydrorock.

Liability

Although Hydrorock seeks a site of excellence, the information contained on or through this web site is offered to imperfections of any kind, both in form and content. Hydrorock nor its suppliers guarantee the suitability, reliability, timeliness or accuracy of such information. The information is provided and presented without warranty of any kind, ie in the state as it is. Hydrorock is in no way liable for any direct damage or indirect or consequential damages or any other damages of any kind resulting from loss of use, data or profits, regardless of the cause.

Hydrorock is not liable for any damage whatsoever, direct and / or indirect damage, including personal injury and property damage, emotional damage, consequential (business and / or stagnation damage) or any other damages arising from or in one way or another relating to the use and / or operation of this website, delay and / or inability to use this website, the provision of services and / or failure to provide services, even if HydroRock the possibility of damage is notified. The above leads only exception, if there is intent or gross negligence of HydroRock (intent or gross negligence of its employees or other persons not including within its sphere of risk). Before using the information from our site, which can be consulted printed or downloaded or any form (uncontrollable copy), please visit our website for the latest information.

Advice via the website

If given direct or indirect advice, tips or recommendations via the website to take practical, technical, financial, legal or other personal or business decisions, then they are given without warranty of any kind. The user should always consult an expert for additional information regarding the advice, tailored to the individual situation.

Privacy Policy

We respect the privacy of our visitors. We collect only such personal information as is needed to provide the information, service, or assistance that you request. HydroRock can gather non-personal data, like browsertype or IP-adres, the platform of the user or the domainname of the website by which the user reaches the HydroRock website. HydroRock can automatically store 'cookies' on the hard drive of the users computer to offer you our services, trace your preferences and optimally configure our website. Cookies are simple text files which contain information, and are placed on your computer, tablet or smartphone by your browser. The website instructs the browser via which the website is visited (for instance Internet Explorer or Google Chrome) to place these cookies.

HydroRock uses three types of cookies: functional, analytic and social media cookies.

The functional cookies are used to make the website more user friendly, by registering the behavior of the visitor on the website and saving certain preferences. The analytic cookies are used for creating statistics on the use of the website. HydroRock uses Google Analytics for this. For more information, please read the privacy policy of Google Analytics. Via the social media cookies HydroRock offers the possibility to share the information on this website via social media buttons. These cookies are placed by third parties. For more information, please see the privacy statements of LinkedIn, Twitter or Facebook. This information changes from time to time, HydroRock cannot influence this.

It is possible to disable cookies. This can be done via the settings in the menu of your browser. Please note that when cookies are disabled or not accepted, certain functions of the website can be lost and the user friendliness can be negatively influenced.

Some cookies (so-called "session cookies") are only stored for the duration of your visit to our website. Other, long-term cookies can still be stored on your computer after your visit, and our website can access them (the so-called "ID cookies") every time that you visit our websites. Other companies can store and call up some of the cookies that are stored on our website during your visit

You can personally control whether cookies are actually stored using the security settings on your browser -- by not accepting cookies from the outset or by only accepting them on request or ensuring that cookies are deleted every time your browser is closed. Please be aware that this can restrict the usability of certain website services and that certain services or sections of the website can only function properly with the placement of cookies

Google analytics

The HydroRock website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. (“Google”). With the help of Google Analytics, we collect (anonymized) information about search behaviour. Google Analytics uses “cookies”, which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your anonymized IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. We are unable to influence this. We have not given Google permission to use the analytics information that is acquired for other Google services. Read Google’s privacy policy for more information, as well as the specific privacy policy of Google Analytics.

If you do not want your click behaviour to be tracked, you can download a browser plug-in from the Google website to prevent this. This setting will then apply to all websites that you visit, so not only the HydroRock website. You can download the browser plug-in here.

Privacy and personal information voluntarily registered

HydroRock uses the personal data of users in accordance with the law on personal data protection. HydroRock collects no personal data of users, unless they are provided voluntarily, including by completing and sending an order, when you place an order, to subscribe to a newsletter or by completing and sending e- mail. Personal data are only used for administrative purposes (customer, orders, information, etc.). Only if the user gives explicit permission, the personal data can be used for other purposes, such as for promotional purposes or direct marketing by HydroRock, its affiliates or third parties. The user may always ask HydroRock to provide, change or delete this personal data.

Links to other websites

This website may contain links to websites or web pages of third parties, or refer to them in some other way. The inclusion of links to other websites or web pages does not in any way constitute approval, implicit or otherwise, of the content of those websites or web pages. HydroRock has no control over the contents of such websites or web pages and can under no circumstances be held liable for their content.

Governing law and jurisdiction

Only the Dutch law applies to this license agreement. Disputes arising from this agreement and which can not be settled amicably, shall be settled exclusively by the competent court.

Changes in Disclaimer & Privacy Policy

HydroRock reserves the right to change its Privacy & Cookies Policy and recommends that you visit this page regularly to see if any changes have been made.
